

AL YOUNG TO MEET PAPKE

Popular Ogden Boxer to Have Go With Sacramento Miller Here

Young Papke, Sacramento miller who will meet Al Young in the main event of the opening card of the next Athletic club, next Thursday night.

At Young, the popular Ogden lightweight, will have the opportunity for which he has longed for several weeks when he will meet Young Papke, a tough boxer from Sacramento, over the six-round route in the Wasatch club arena in the Eagles building next Thursday night. Young and the coast had been selected by J. R. Downing, club owner, to furnish the main event for the opening card which will include five other fast scraps.

Young and Papke milled for six rounds a few weeks ago in Salt Lake with the result that Young was awarded the decision. Now Papke feels that he is fully acclimated and can even up the score in six more rounds.

Young, however, believes it given another opportunity he can put the California lad to sleep and settle the question of supremacy for all time. With both boys feeling this way, the battle should furnish the ring followers plenty of excitement.

Although Young and Papke will hold the stellar position on the opening card, no less interest is being taken in an additional headline event between Jimmy Johns, the Ogden boxer, and Claire Bromo, another lad who claims California as his home. Bromo, outwrestled Johns slightly, but the Ogden lad is willing to take his chances. Bromo has carved himself out an unusual record and his scrap book shows many knockouts to his favor over many clever scrappers throughout the west. The followers of Johns, however, know that Johns will not back up for the best and feel that with the local lad in good trim he will show Bromo an interesting period.

Mysterious Jimmy Brown, another Ogden slugger, will make his reappearance in the squared circle next Thursday when he will tangle with Battling Jack Daley, a Brooklyn boy, who has appeared in the Salt Lake arena on various times for the past two years. Both these men are sluggers and can be depended upon for action during every moment in the ring. Brown is now busy daily with road work and workouts and is rapidly getting back into his old form.

For the fourth battle of the evening an Ogden lad, who has appeared in the ring last year in Salt Lake, but who desires that he be known in his fighting togs under a non-deplume will battle with another Salt Lake boy.

Two other fast battles are being arranged and will be announced by Mr. Downing with the week.

It is now certain that the permanent arena in the Eagles building will be completed by next Monday and everything will be in readiness for the opening show. Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock, Mr. Downing said.

His signature was annexed to a contract at Los Angeles yesterday afternoon by President H. W. Lane of the Salt Lake club.

Gravath succeeds Ernie Johnson as pilot for the Bees. Johnson was recently added to the Chicago White Sox for a most sum and will hold down the shortstop position for the Connie-Krey club during the coming season.

Gravath is one of the greatest stars ever developed in the game and is expected to prove a manager of ability in his new position. While in the big show, Gravath never failed to surpass the top mark with the wilew. He totaled 150 home runs while in the majors.

He started his professional career as a member of the Los Angeles club of the Coast league in 1902. Five years later he started his first game in the majors with the Boston Americans. He later was transferred to the Phillies. He was a member of the latter organization for more than two years.

"I am feeling fine, am in good condition, and expect to give my opponent a run for his money, whether he be Dempsey or Brommo," Willard said. "I have been doing a little light training lately with Jack Kempe, of Casper, Wyo., who has been with me for a number of years."

THREATENED GOLF ROW MAY BE SETTLED SOON

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Prominent officials of the United States Golf association today adopted a policy of watchful waiting over the threatened invasion of the east by the Western Golf association. Comment generally was guarded and but few officials would talk for publication.

In some quarters there was seen an indication of patching up the difference before the annual meeting of the United States Golf association set for January 1 in New York.

SPORTS TALK

FIRST PUNCH WILL WIN?

Georges Carpentier is a smart fellow—that is, he is something more than a boxer.

One might even call the Frenchman a prophet.

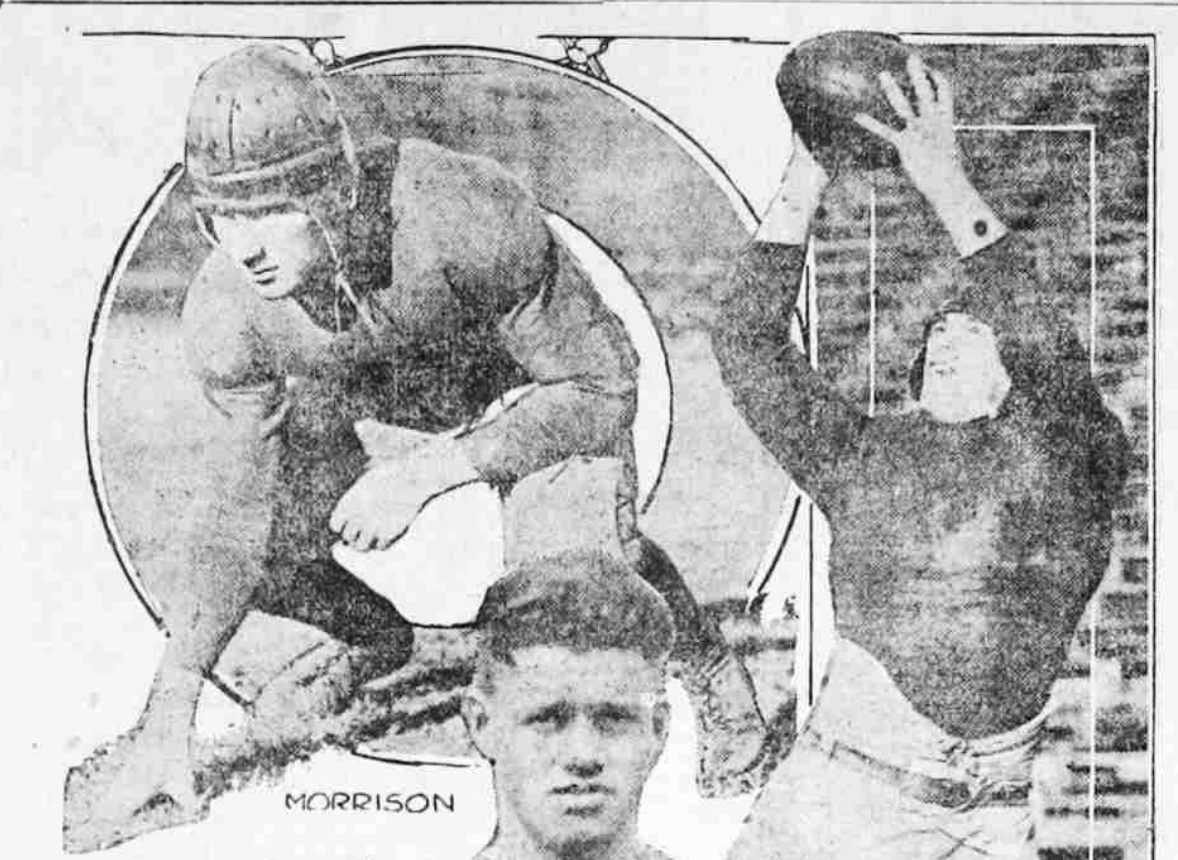

"The one that gets the first punch will win," he said, referring to his coming match with Dempsey. "We'll let it go at that so far as the next world's championship heavyweight fight goes."

But just look around and see if you have a punch in your system and if you can land it first.

How hard can you sock at your job? What is your batting average in the a. m.?

CALIFORNIA BEARS ARE HIGH SCORING MACHINE OF COAST CONFERENCE

U. of C. Favorites to Meet Ohioans in New Year Classic

By DEAN SNYDER.

With the California Bears and Ohio State invited to furnish the gridiron entertainment for the Rose Tournament at Pasadena, on New Year day, two different kinds of scoring machines will be brought together.

The Buckeyes, champions of the Western conference, are a low scoring team. They won the title honors with a season total of but thirty-seven points.

Almost in direct contrast to them, the University of California team is the biggest scoring team of the country.

SCORING MACHINE.

Against the strong teams of the Pacific coast conference, including Washington State, Oregon State, Oregon Agricultural and Stanford, the Californians piled up 441 points to their opponents fourteen this year—and those fourteen were the result of a fumble in one game and a doubtful kick in another.

Any team that has attempted to play old-fashioned football against the Bears this year has been up against a brick wall defense. But followers of the Ohioans know that they are a forward passing team that have no regard for the old style football.

CALIFORNIA STARS.

The Californians have four outstanding stars on their eleven this year. They are "Brick" Muller, end, and an All-American, "Pekky" Sprott, halfback, Dan Millan, tackle, and J. R. Morrison, fullback.

All four of these men are whalers on defense and offense. Sprott and Muller were both members of the Olympic team.

MULLER'S SPEED.

Muller, right end, although he is but 19, is one of the most powerful athletes ever developed on the coast. He weighs 188 pounds and is considered the fastest wingman California squads have had in the last twenty years. Working with Eric, the 150-pound quarter, Muller has proven to be the most consistent forward pass ground-gainer of all the coasters.

He's a red-headed Irishman and never speaks from the time the whistle blows until the quarter is ended, but he tackles 'em all their teeth crack and can be counted on to eliminate two opponents for each play coming around his end.

WHIPSAP TACKLE.

Sprott, backfield star, has been a great ground gainer for the Bears.

HIT 'EM FIRST.

McMillan is a ready, quick-thinking man and plays the "hit-em-first" sort of game. He has been one of the main reasons for keeping the Californians' goal line practically unbreached this year.

Morrison has stood out as one of the best fullbacks on the coast. He weighs 175 pounds and his plunges have made it possible for his team to march straight down the field without having to resort to overhead play. He boots constantly for sixty yards and several of his kicks have measured seventy yards. He is six feet one, and when charging he resembles a battering ram with his head ducked down as he plows through.

OHIO'S THREAT.

It will be interesting to note just how the forward pass wonder team of Ohio will stack up against the high-scoring machine of the west.

Will the Buckeye quarterback "Hoge" Workman, and his speedy running-mate, Pete Stinchcomb, be able to pull the New Year day game out of the fire in the last minute of play as they won the Western conference title from Illinois?

The Californians will have to watch 'em.

NEW STADIUM FOR STANFORD ATHLETES

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Dec. 1.—The board of athletic control has decided to build an athletic stadium costing $550,000 and seating 40,000 persons, it was announced today.

Erection of the stadium, which is to be of the bowl type, will start next summer, it was decided. A finance committee was appointed to work out plans for financing the project.

The stadium will be equipped with a 220 yard straightaway track and will accommodate American, English and Soccer football.

CANCEL GAMES.

LONG BEACH, Cal., Dec. 1.—The Long Beach high school football team, state and southwestern champion in 1919, has relinquished all chance of gaining the state interscholastic championship by cancelling all games arranged for it by the California interscholastic federation, it became known today.

PRELUDE WINS.

URBANA, Ill., Dec. 1.—Paul Prelu, wrestling instructor at the University of Illinois, and winner of the intercollegiate wrestling championship, defeated Earl Farley of Humboldt, Minn., A. E. F. middleweight champion in straight falls here tonight.

OBEISANCE UNVEILED.

SENLE, France, Nov. 10.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—In the hamlet of Louvres, a few kilometers south of here on the road to Paris, an obelisk some 12 feet high, surmounted by the statue of a French soldier, has just been unveiled. It marks the exact spot where, on September 7, 1914, the advance guard of the French army, the 101st division, was brought to halt a little less than 10 miles from Paris.

HE'LL SPEND WEEK.

CLEVELAND.—"But Judge, I'm working only five days a week now and if you send me to jail for 10 days I'll lose my job, then I won't be able to pay alimony at all," protested Stanley Lapinska, in court here. "That sounds reasonable," concurred his attorney, after finding Stanley guilty of molesting his wife and failing to pay support while she sues for divorce. "You work five days a week and the other two you serve in jail until the 10 days are served. Bailiff! Page the next one!"

ANTI-FLY DRIVE MAKES HER ILL.

EVANSVILLE, Ind.—Mrs. Charles Redding's attempt to "swat" the fly, brought her to the hospital here. Mrs. Redding is a domestic science teacher. She scattered poison to kill flies in her class room. Physicians think her illness came when she inhaled the powdered poison.

TITLE CONTEST MAY BE HALTED

Leopard and Logan Officials Fail to Agree on Place For Final Tilt

Representatives of the East high school and the Logan high school met at Salt Lake yesterday together with officials of the Utah High School association for the purpose of trying to untangle the snarl regarding the championship battle between the East high and Logan high elevens.

The Loganites were represented at the meeting by Principal Norman Hamilton. He stated that the Logan school had spent considerable money in advertising the contest and that the match should be played at Logan.

Standing "pat" on their decision of Monday the Leopards refused to play on any field other than Cummings field, unless the game was played at Ogden on the Lorin Farr park field. Logan would not agree to play the contest here.

Although the officials of the two schools met, no decision was made and it is very probable that the contest will not be staged.

President James E. Moss of the High School Athletic association stated today that the Loganites would be awarded the state title unless the contest is played.

NO DECISION.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Howard F. Whitney, president-elect of the United States Golf association, said tonight the association would take no action relative to the proposed expansion of the Western Golf association until after it had received some official word from the western body.

Mr. Whitney said he intended to do no worrying about the matter and added that in the event of strife the national body is well prepared. He declared the Canadian Association and the Royal and Ancient Association of New England were with the United States Golf association.

WON'T MEET YALE.

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 1.—The formidable Boston college football team will not line up against Yale next year, according to a telegram received today by Frank A. Reynolds, graduate manager of athletics at Boston college, from M. D. Goddard, manager of the Blue eleven.

KLESCHE IMPROVES.

CLEVELAND.—Johnny Klesch, the young middleweight whom Jerry Sachs is grooming for a scrap with Johnnie Wilson, a promising all-arounder, is mixing it with the best class of middleweight center and is not set-up for any of them.

WHY CHANGE?

PHILADELPHIA.—Mike Kelley surprised a lot of folks by not accepting the job of trying to put some life in the Phillies. Mike gets practically as much salary managing the Seals and he doesn't have to fight much to win a pennant.

GIBBONS TEACHES BOXING.

URBANA, Ill., Dec. 2.—Mike Gibbons, of St. Paul, arrived at the University of Illinois today to assist Paul Petrie, boxing and wrestling instructor. Gibbons will spend the next three days instructing students in boxing.

REFEREES BILLIARD MATCH.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Charles Peterson, the famous billiardist of St. Louis, has been selected to referee the final round of the national 18.2 ball line billiard tournament here next week. The participants will be Willie Hoppe, world's champion, Walter Cochran and Jake Schaefer.

NOISE DOESN'T BOTHER JACK.

Bright Broadway had just come to life.

"Was only 10 o'clock."

"I guess I'll turn right into bed."

Said Dempsey, King of Sock.

"This noise, it doesn't bother me. I've got to earn some tin—"

In fighting nothing's ever sure."

Said he and tumbled in.

You'd get another thrill when you saw him doing roadwork in Central park, right in the heart of New York, earlier than most folks roll down to work in a Stone and Webster trolley bus.

But when you learn that Dempsey has pitched his training camp right on Broadway with all its throbs of life and gaiety and funny little noises that never stop from sunset to sunrise you'd probably imagine you were off your nut.

That's where James Harrison is getting in trim to box Bill Brennan, and Willard, perhaps, and after that the brilliant and speedy Georges.

Most fighters slip off into the woods some place when they are tuning themselves up for a big test. But Dempsey places himself right in the heart of temptation in the biggest city in the world, and quietly minds his own business.

Give Jack credit for being a champ with his fists and a master of himself.

"There's absolutely nothing sure in the fight game," he says. "And Jack is right. Ask Jess Willard, Mike O'Dowd, or any of the dethroned champs. They'll say Amen."

SWINGS CLUB LIKE A CHAMP

BOTCAZOU

At the age of 14 this French boy, Raymond Botcazou, golfs like a champion. He competed in the British open championship this year and surprised the galleries by his wonderful shots.

Botcazou turned in a score card of 77 one day during the tourney at North Foreland, which was only three shots above that made by the professional, Abe Mitchell. He actually drove the third green which is 315 yards from the tee.

The boy was first found to have ability as a golfer when he caddied for Lord Northcliffe at La Boule, Versailles, three years ago.

He is at present studying club making under Abe Mitchell at North Foreland.

ECKERSALL KNOWS.

COLUMBUS.—Walter Eckersall says that Pete Stinchcomb is the smartest player of the year in western football. He credits Stinchcomb's thinker for winning the conference title for the Bucks.

BOY POPULAR.

PORTLAND.—Boy McCormick, the light heavyweight champ of Europe, is always there with a handshake. He never asks who he is going to fight or how much he weighs. What interests Boy is how long he'll have to train.

OLE RECOVERS.

TACOMA.—Ole Anderson, the Pacific coast boy who failed to make much of a hit down east as a knock-out fighter, but who won a lot of credit for gameness, is tipping over heavyweights again.

REFEREES BILLIARD MATCH.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Charles Peterson, the famous billiardist of St. Louis, has been selected to referee the final round of the national 18.2 ball line billiard tournament here next week. The participants will be Willie Hoppe, world's champion, Walter Cochran and Jake Schaefer.
